

Here for the Holidays

Do you know an Engineer . . .

have a friend or family member who is an Engineer coming to Utah for the holidays?

Are you, an Engineer...

in Utah for the holidays?

Dozens of Utah companies this holiday season have put Engineers on their wish lists!

That is why Utah Governor Jon M. Huntsman, Jr., is asking you to join in helping those Utah companies find hundreds of Engineers who would like to move to Utah to fill engineering positions and enjoy the quality of life in Utah.

"Whether you are here vacationing or visiting friends and family, Utah invites you to explore our expanding job market."

— Jon M. Huntsman, Jr., Governor

Well paid jobs are available across Utah in Rural and Urban settings. Invite those Engineers you know and love to apply. And if you are visiting and just like what you see and experience here, send your resume to the Governor's Office of Economic Development via email at: resumes@utah.gov
